The Clay County JobSight is on top of a mountain just outside of Manchester near the Hal Rogers (formerly Daniel Boone) Parkway.

- If you are coming from the Parkway:

Take the Manchester exit (Exit 20) and turn north toward town.

At the first traffic signal, turn right onto US 421. (There are Wendy's and McDonald's restaurants at this intersection.)

At bottom of the hill, you will come to a railroad crossing. Just beyond the crossing on the right is the Clay County Detention Center. (You may also see a tall JobSight sign on the right.)

Cross the railroad tracks and immediately turn right, into the Detention Center parking lot.

Drive past the Detention Center and follow the drive under the overpass. (This is Shamrock Road.)

The Clay County JobSight is in the Daniel Boone Development Council building approximately 1.5 miles up Shamrock Road.

- If you are coming from Manchester:

Drive toward the Hal Rogers (Daniel Boone) Parkway on KY 80.

At the last traffic signal before the parkway, turn left onto US 421. (There are Wendy's and McDonald's restaurants at this intersection.)

At bottom of the hill, you will come to a railroad crossing. Just beyond the crossing on the right is the Clay County Detention Center. (You may also see a tall JobSight sign on the right.)
